

Grantsburg Pirates vs. Luck Cardinals

Girls basketball

Friday, December 9, 2011

Game Data: The Pirates welcome the Cardinals to the gym tonight in the first conference battle of the season for both teams.

Matchup History: This is the first meeting between the two conference rivals this year. Last year Grantsburg swept the season series. In the past nine years the regular season series is split 9-9.

The two teams have only split the season series once in the past nine years. That was during the '08-'09 campaign. (The boys and girls records are startling similar, including the season split stat).

Pirate Preview: The Pirates are out of the gates strong after defeating a strong Winter program on the first game of the season. This will be the home opener for the Pirates.

Keep an eye on the paint for the Pirates. With some strong girls patrolling the key, Grantsburg may have an advantage.

Cardinal Preview: It all begins and ends with 5'5" Senior guard and 1,000 point scorer, #23 Avery Steen. Do not let her short stature fool you, she is as strong as they come, can handle the ball flawlessly and can shoot from anywhere. If Luck is to be successful this year, Steen will be the main reason.

But don't sleep on 5'6" Senior guard, #4 Maia Lehmann. She is a very good athlete as well and if the Pirates pay too much attention to Steen, Lehmann is capable of scoring as well.

Under the Radar: Sam Schweiger scored 17 and Carly Larson scored 13 in the victory over Winter, but the person to be aware of early in the season is 5'7" Sophomore guard, #1 Macy Hansen. She's fairly tall, very athletic and quick. A deadly combo in basketball... she only lacks experience. She should be one of those who progress during the year and end as one of the top players in the conference.

Where are they now: Former Luck standout athlete, Morgan Denny is now playing volleyball at UW-Stout. In her freshman campaign she registered 164 kills on 478 attacks, had 10 aces, and 77 total blocks (her .79 blocks per game led the team)! What a great year for the rookie! She was also voted as the Blue Devils Most Improved Player. Congratulations, Morgan!

The Pirates travel to Siren for a big early season showdown. Is this the year the Pirates unseat the Dragons atop the conference. Tuesday will be a big step toward that goal.
